Rules regarding uniforms

1. Kurta suit: All learners are to strictly wear school uniforms at all times. Kurta pants must be above the ankles. Sewn kurtas in different shades, fabrics and patterns will not be allowed.
2. Jerseys/Jackets: Only the school jersey, tracksuit and jacket will be allowed. No other jackets or jerseys of different colours will be allowed.
3. Topi: Only the brown school topi will be allowed. Topi must not be worn like a "skull cap".
4. Shoes: Only black or brown school shoes and school socks will be allowed. No boots, takkies, patent leather, suede or any name brand shoes will be allowed. Only 'Green Cross' orthopaedic shoes allowed.
5. Gloves and woollen hats worn in winter have to be beige, brown or black.
6. Learners are expected to look neat whether at school or on the playing fields. Failure to comply with the rules is punishable.
7. All parts of uniform must be clearly marked. Clothing or any other items with pictures of animate objects are not allowed.
8. Hair: Hair must be tapered gradually and uniformly to one length only. Hair may not be outlandishly stepped or undercut. No steps and layers are allowed as this is against the teachings of our Prophet (S.A.W). Hair may not be bleached, dyed or highlighted. Hair gel may not be used.

Dress requirements for sporting activities and physical education:

Tracksuits are only allowed on PE days. All learners are required to wear plain white T/shirts inside. Strictly no other colour or printed T-Shirts are allowed.

Footwear – STRICTLY black 'Tommies'
